

Promotion of Joint Sponsored Activities Policy

In accordance with ACCME policy, accreditation of continuing professional education activities can only be granted after a full review of required documentation and materials. Promotion of accreditation requires approval. Use of the term 'CME/CE pending' or similar language on promotional materials is not allowed.

All promotional materials must be reviewed and approved by the CPE team prior to dissemination.

